FR FIRM ON THE STOCK MARKET ON THE DOWN COLD WAVE REPORTS GRADE AS REGARDS PRICES

Volume of Trading Is Diminishing, Almost all the Market Easy at a Slight Gain; Business Being Done by Professionals.

By BROADAN WALL.

By International News Service.

By International News Service,
NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—With a diminished volume of trading that represented liftle more than professional operations, prices moved irregularly today, fractional declines predominating.
Speculative interests with a fica-like movement landed for a moment on Central Leather, carrying the price to 305.
Woolworth rose to 1024 on the publication of the annual report showing earnings of nearly 11 per cent on the common. Colorado Fuel was firm. National Biscuit rose another point and California Petroleum issues gained a point. Maxican Petroleum moved creatically with a net decline.

California Petroleum issues gained a point Mexican Petroleum issues gained a point Mexican Petroleum moved erratically with a net decline.

Metals Neglected.

Traders blew hot and cold in the steel common crowd without affecting the price an eighth on the day. Metal issues generally were neglected. Utah Copper declined fractionally, although the report for the quarter ended December 31 showed a surplus of $1,388,000 against a deficit of $82,000 in the same quarter of 1912. Brokers were disappointed over the sudden cessation of foreign buying. The London market was unusually dull and the trading for foreign account was less than 15,000 shares, including both the buying and selling.

Rumors of a $50,000,000 bond issue by Pennsylvania dropped quotations for the stock a full point and shook down the rest of the market fractionally. South-ern Pacific is expected to enter the mar-ket soon with an issue of $35,000,000 bonds, part to be used to retire notes falling due in June.

New Haven Sold Short.

New Haven sold from 73½ to 73. There is a strong temptation to the trader to sell this stock short for as a non-dividend payer the price is out of proportion. The short interest, already unwieldy, is responsible for the ruling figures.

YOUR BLOOD IS TAINTED

More than two-thirds of the people of the world are afflicted with tainted blood, according to medical statistics. Some have acquired it through disease, but most have inherited it. This is an alarming state of affairs. Did it ever occur to you that you may be among that great majority who have impure blood? YOU MAY TREAT FOREVER with medicines directed to the relief of your symptoms, but unless your blood is first made pure the medicines will all fail. You have intelligence enough to agree with me in this. REMEMBER THIS: Nothing can be cured unless the blood stream which carries all nutrition to the organs is pure.

can be cured unless the blood stream which carries all nutrition to the organs is pure.

I put the blood in perfect condition and nature does the rest.

THE NEW SCIENTIFIO

METHOD.

I have a Salvarsen Equipment from which 250 to 300 cubic centimeters (little less than a quart) is poured directly into the heart: from there it is sent through every artery and vein. I will demonstrate to you how you may be cured if you have an affliction that will not yield to ordinary treatment.

I keep up with the latest scientific methods and apply them in my work; you can get the best for the same price you will pay for cheap work. Careful attention to study and work has enabled me to occupy for many years the position of leading specialist in men's diseases. A call costs nothing, proves everything. In a word, I cure private disorders of every form. If you desire only relief go to others. If you desire a cure, come to me.

the paim trees and senoritas of the canal zone. Mutt and Jeff continue their adventures by cluding a secret service officer and members of the army and end by stowing away on a steamer bound for the San Francisco exposition. Act III is on board the good ship Aleida, and a happy ending and grand climax is furnished by thwarting the plans of the deadly villian, Baron Sato, and the presumption that Mutt and Jeff win a large sum of good, hard dollars for their help in effecting the happy denouement.

The chorus is well drilled and dances well.

"A Lady of Quality" is a play of great attraction and it gives Miss Cecella Loftus a magnificent vehicle in which to make her bow to motion picture audiences after her notable career on the oral stage. The piece, produced by Daniel Frohman and the Famous Players, opened a three days' run at the Rex theater yesterday. It is in five reels, and the splendid costuming and elaborate mounting add to the charm of the production. The story, by Frances Hodgson Burnettells of the life of "Ciorinda," born a girl to her father's disappointment. The child has reached the age of 5 before her father pays any attention to her. Then, meeting her by chance and discovering her lively spirit, he determines to avenge himself on her sex by trying to "make a man of her." He carries out this determination by throwing the girl among his own hard-living, male companions. She grows up more as a man than a woman, wearing male attire, smoking, swearing and drinking. A wager, made among some of the young beaux of London, changes her nature. "Sir John Oxon" wagers that he can win her love, and does it. His ridicule of her costume and manners induces her to assume proper feminine garb, to abandon her hoydenish ways and become "a lady of qualoxon wagers that he can win her love, and does it. His ridicule of her costume and manners induces her to assume proper feminine garb, to abandon her hoydenish ways and become "a lady of quality." Then, having won her affections, he leaves, and she next hears that he is to marry another woman. Grief and humiliation change her nature and further trouble comes when "Oxon," failing to marry the other woman and anxious to have "Clorinda's" fortune, visits her again and tries to compromise her. In her sudden anger, she strikes him with her riding whip and the blow kills him. She conceals the body and endeavors to make reparation by helping some of "Oxon's" other victims.

Miss Loftus makes the most of the opportunities given her in the difficult part, which requires so abrupt a change in character.

"A Lady of Quality" will be given again today and tomorrow.

again today and tomorrow.

The moving picture dramatization of the thrilling story of Robin Hood can be truly said to be a typical reproduction in photography of what history itself pictures. The film, which was prepared by the Mutual Film corporation, is being shown in three reels at the American theater. It will be continued today and tomorrow, closing temorrow night. No detall is lacking which would tend to make the picture complete. From the excellent scene settings to the acting and the costumes of the many members of the cast everything appears to have been carefully prepared for the staging of the production. The story is told in three parts, the first being the tale of Maid Marlon and Robin Hood; the second being the story of Alan-a-Dale and Robin Hood, and the third the story of King Richard and Robin Hood; the second being the story of Alan-a-Dale and Robin Hood, and the third the story of King Richard and Robin Hood; the second being the story of Alan-a-Dale and Robin Hood, and the third the story of King Richard and Robin Hood; the second being the very of King Richard and Robin Hood; the second being the story of Alan-a-Dale and Robin Hood, and the third the story of King Richard and Robin Hood; the second being the very of King Richard and Robin Hood; the second being the story of King Richard and Robin Hood; the second being the story of King Richard and Robin Hood; the second being the story of King Richard and Robin Hood; the second being the story of King Richard and Robin Hood; the second being the story of King Richard and Robin Hood; the second being the story of Alan-a-Oale and Robin Hood; the second being the story of King Richard and Robin Hood; the second being the story of the move the management has decided to offer a succession last night. The result of Alexander Pantages striving for something out of the ordinary run of vaudeville acts with which to regale his patrons has resulted in continued interest in his efforts, and the local Pantages theater is enjoying unusually large business. This week "Texas," self-styled the "human gorilla," is out with an offer of $1000 to anyone who will bring a horse or mule to the theater that will allow twenty-six men to bend an eightinch steel bar over its back and bend it the same as "Texas" does upon his neck under similar conditions.

The Pathe company has scored a decided "hit" in its three-part detective drams, "The Mystery of the Thoroughbred." Nick Winter has won fresh laurels for his remarkable impersonations in the dual role of the famous detective and the crook. This attraction will be shown at the Mebesy for the last time today. "The Barter of Louise," and a delightful Selig comedy and music by the concert orchestra complete the programme.
